

Scoil Fhionáin Márta 2019

Comhghairdeas-Congratulations

To all the Green Schools Committee- all the work you have done for the latest green flag- GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP-ENERGY. We had a visit from Suzanne of Donegal Co. Council who was very impressed with all the projects carried out. We are all citizens of Ireland/Europe but we are also citizens of the world. We depend on the other side of the world for so much: food , clothing, phones and technology....What YOU can do.....

- SAY NO TO PLASTIC PACKAGING- for example, choose Easter eggs with zero plastic.
- USE OUR CLOTHING RECYCLE BANK (behind school)
- USE THE CAR LESS AND WALK MORE, when possible.
- COMÓRTAS ATHCHÚRSÁLA EALAÍNE- RECYCLED ART COMPETITION: Open to all children from Rang 2-6, the aim is to make any object from used materials . Closing date is Monday 8th April. We will be showing children where to get ideas for this activity.

Aonach na Leabhar agus Mr. Stink

Mr .Stink, the children's novel by David Walliams, is proving very popular among Ranganna 2-6.

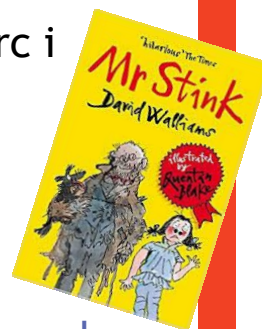

Beidh tionól againn gan mhoill ar an leabhar seo. (There will be a reading assembly based on the book next week)

There is a Book Fair in school this week- parents/guardians and children will be invited at different times. 40% of money spent on books goes directly towards school library.

Buíochas do Mhúinteoir Niamh atá ag amharc i ndiaidh an t-Aonach Leabhar.

Tá céardlann ealaíne ag tarlú fríd na scoile

Déardaoin agus Dé hAoine seo- On Thursday and Friday , we will be exploring local History themes through whole-school Art workshops, from Naíonáin to Rang 6, as part of our school self-evaluation (Féinmheastóireacht Scoile).

Nóta: Remember, school is closed to pupils on Friday 5th April to facilitate planning for new Language Curriculum

Comhghairdeas arís le Rang 1 agus an dráma iontach “Ceol na Sí”- Congratulations again to R1 with their fantastic drama- Thanks to Steven, Geraldine, Rose and Caolán.

As part of the Science , Technology, Engineering and Maths, all children are taking part in a Bricks for Kids engineering workshop on Wednesday 3rd April.

On Wednesday 10th April, beidh an cór mór agus an banna ceoil ag dul ar thuras speisialta.....

The Case of the Missing _____

* Special Noun *

There once was a detective named _____.

Name

detective's neighbor knocked on the door.

"I am so _____," said the neighbor. "I can't find my _____"

Adjective

* Special Noun *

anywhere. I saw it before I went to _____ club, but later it was gone!"

Verb ending in "ing"

The detective grabbed a pencil and a _____ and asked, "Will

Noun

you describe it?"

"Certainly," said the neighbor. "It is _____, _____, and

Color

Adjective

it never _____."

Plural verb

The detective searched _____ around every _____ and

Adverb
Noun

behind every _____.

Noun

"_____!" said the detective, "I found it! It was right here under Exclamation

your _____ the whole time!"

Noun

They both had a good _____, and the detective thought,

Verb

"Another case _____ solved!"

Adverb

Story Title

Ready to create your own Funny Fill-in story? To get started right away, just replace this text with your own. You can customize your story by adding your own pictures, shapes, and icons. On the Insert tab of the ribbon, just tap the option you need.

Once your story is complete, go back and replace the nouns, adjectives, adverbs, and other words with fill-in blanks. To create the fill-in blanks, just add a series of underscores, like this: _____.

To add the labels, at the end of each line of your story, press Enter twice to create an empty paragraph between each line. Type the label text, and then select the Fill-In-Label style from the Styles gallery on the Home tab. Use tabs and spaces in front of the label to position it under the fill-in blank: _____.

Fill-In Label

Get creative with your fill-in labels by using an Icon from the Insert tab in place of the label text. Resize and recolor the icons on the Format tab, and then select the Fill-In Icon style for the label paragraph:_____.

Stuck for story ideas? Get inspiration from a favorite story, fairytale, song, movie, or show. For a special occasion, such as a birthday or family get-together, write a story about the person or a funny family story.

